93 Points

Beautiful, and one of the most classic expressions of Pinot Noir in the Loring lineup. Complex notes of strawberries, cherries, forest floor, spices and hints of earth all emerge from the glass and it's medium-bodied, beautifully balanced, elegant and silky on the palate. It has bright acidity, yet everything is in the right proportions, it has a good mid-palate and a great finish.

Pale to medium ruby-purple colored, the 2016 Pinot Noir Kessler-Haak Vineyard gives a fragrant nose of red roses, kirsch and raspberry pie over hints of underbrush, red plum preserves and spice cake. Medium-bodied, plush, ripe and opulent in the mouth, it has plenty of spicy red berry preserves flavors on offer and a pleasantly chewy finish.

Juicy and refined, with rich flavors of dark cherry, dried meat and mineral. Shows vibrant spiciness midpalate, revealing Asian spice and forest floor accents.
