Reviews

Lisa Perrotti-Brown (Wine Advocate)

91 Points

Pale to medium ruby-purple colored, the 2016 Pinot Noir Garys' Vineyard opens with fragrant kirsch, raspberry pie and rose hip tea notes with underlying black pepper and mossy bark hints. Medium-bodied, firmly textured and with lovely freshness, it offers delicate red berry and savory layers with an herbal lift to the finish.

Jeb Dunnuck

91 Points

Offers vibrant notes of black cherries, plums, spice and that classic minerality and earthiness that's always present in wines from this vineyard. Medium-bodied, balanced and lively on the palate, with good acidity, it's another rock-solid Pinot Noir to drink over the coming 4-5 years.
